Notice on suspension: Accident insurance can be suspended if the applicant is mandatorily insured with the employer in accordance with the Federal Accident Insurance Act (UVG) against the financial consequences of occupational and non-occupational accidents as well as occupational illnesses.
In accordance with Art. 10 KVG, the employer must inform persons who are leaving the employment relationship¹ or withdrawing from UVG non-occupational accident insurance² in writing that they must notify their KVG health insurer about this.

Name and address of employer

¹ In accordance with Art. 3 para. 2 UVG the insurance cover ends on the 30th day following the date on which entitlement to at least half the salary ends.
² In accordance with Art. 13 para. 1 UVV, part-time employees whose weekly working time does not exceed 8 hours are not insured against non-occupational accidents.
